“ Kindness, compassion and talent barely scratch the surface as to what Mr. Dondineau contributed to our world. Aaron always exuded warmth toward me. I will miss his thunderous laughter and his understanding. What a privilege it has been working with you kind sir. -Bill Swain.

“ I never met Aaron. Coming from the roots of Mr. & Mrs. Gordon Dondineau I'm sure he was a good man. Having the Dondineau family as neighbors growing up was a great experience.

“ Aaron was like a great big teddy bear. I met him at mission point of Clarkston where I am at for physical therapy. Aaron had a heart of gold he would give you the shirt off his back. He was like a brother from another mother. His nickname here was Red bone. He cherished his mother greatly always talked highly of her. Fly high Red bone Aaron Rest In Peace The night you passed it thunder stormed and rained and was windy here in Clarkston thank you for voicing your opinion and letting us know you were still here My heart goes out to the family during this hard time and great loss of a great guy Chose green candle since you have gone onto greener pastures
