“ Danny and family,

You are in my heart and prayers during this time of loss and sadness. I always admired what a strong and caring person Connie was. Nursing was the perfect field for her. I wish I had heard sooner, I would have flown back home for her funeral. I am sure Connie touched many peoples lives and will be greatly missed in her community.

*Love you,
Your cousin Carrie Daniel*

“ Danny and family- Please know that the your family in Tennessee are carrying all of you in our hearts and prayers during this time of loss and sadness. We still have the beautiful ceramic Christmas tree Connie made us for our wedding on display and lit in our home- a gift we've treasured for 31 years and often brings us fond memories of both of you. Our prayers of peace and love to you all. Love, Todd and Theresa Williams and family.
