“ Sending our deepest condolences to you all. As neighbors, your mom was the sweetest to my kids for trick or treating. She always had something special for them. We will always remember her kindness. She sure had a big heart. Rest easy, Cindy.

“ Cindy was a great friend and co-worker. She was also an excellent cook . Cindy had a huge heart and was always helping anyone out anyway she could. On her days of appointments , she would always force out a smile and offer encouragement or kind words to others going through the cancer treatments just like her while pushing through the pain of her own. Cindy was a strong woman and fought hard through her battle of cancer and other challenges thrown at her . Her love of coupons, thrift stores, and garage sales were always a highlight in her life. She loved a good bargain! Cindy was an amazing person and will be missed .

“ Your mom fought a long hard battle to be around for her children, who Cindy loved dearly.
Of course, all her animal family.
Kay found time to always be there when Cindy called her to stop in, bring her sweets, had any questions, etc.

“ RJ & Aleigha, Courtney & Ben...my sincere condolences on the loss of your mom. She loved you all so very much. She is definitely holding Renee, yet wishing she could still be here with you. She was a strong woman, giving that cancer one hell of a fight! Be good to each other, as your mom would want.... Your in my thoughts and prayers.

“ She was always spoiling my kids as if they were her own grandkids. She had a big heart. I missed seeing her stop in both at home and periodically at work and running into her and once in awhile in Meijer with her daughter Courtney. My thoughts are with you during this difficult time. One thing I've come to learn in life is you can prepare for death all you want but once it happens it's hard to distinguish all the feelings you're going through. I hope you find peace and comfort knowing Cindy was one hell of a fighter. She'll be greatly missed!
