“ We have you in our hearts and prayers in Dan's sudden homegoing. This kind man was a blessing every time you met him. His quiet faith and steadfast walk with the Lord is a strong testimony that glorifies our Lord Jesus Christ. It was special to see him always smiling and joking as he greeted people at the church door. God comfort you all, until we meet him again in Glory. Love and prayers, Kiehls

“ I grew up living right next door to my cousin Danny and I seen him grow up to be the most God loving, caring, loving and goofy soul. I remember, he'd be so scared of storms that he'd come over and actually hide under the kitchen table. Think Grandma Lona had a little to do with that as I used to be really afraid also, just didn't hide under the kitchen table. lol.. then there's when Danny took over mowing our 2-3 acres of grass and only then did Grandma get a riding lawn mower, as i remember it. 😊 So I know Grandma is with Danny now, hugging and loving on him for us all. I hadn't seen Danny for many years but as in his picture, I can still feel his happiness and love for all who knew him! Gone way too soon but I have solace in knowing he's with God and surrounded by all our loved ones up in Heaven rejoicing in God's love! With love, condolences and prayers to all the family and his friends. Danny was one of the Best! Love, Becky Rockefeller Messing
