“ When I was younger, I would drive home with Uncle Carl after he was done working in the city. I would stay a week or two with Aunt Darlene while Uncle Carl went back to work. I loved every minute of my time I got to spend with her. So many great memories to even count. I always have, and always will treasure those times I got to spend with just her and I. I feel beyond blessed, and thank the good Lord that I was one (of many) that he chose to have her in my life. Because anyone who knew her, knew just how hard she loved. I thank her for being one of those who taught us all the value of family, love, and loyalty. The world will never be the same without her. I love you Aunt Darlene, I will miss you every day.

“ My favorite memory of Aunt Darlene is when we were all young and we would have Easter at her house and have an Easter egg hunt her and Aunt Carol would always tell us where they were at. Every time I would see something Norman Rockwell it all brought a smile to my face it made me think of her❤️ REST IN PEACE AUNT DARLENE ❤️
