

Deborah L. Hacker

February 1, 1968 - September 15, 2022

Deborah L. Hacker, age 54, of Bad Axe, passed away on Thursday, September 15, 2022.

She was born on February 1, 1968, daughter of Boyde Christiansen and Glenna (Cook) Christiansen.

She was a teacher at Davenport University for many years and most recently a loan advisor at Northstar Bank in Bad Axe. She loved being outside in warm weather, reading, and doing as many puzzles as she could. She was a loving, and devoted mother who did everything she could for her kids. She was an amazing friend, loving aunt, a caring sister, and a daughter anyone would be proud to have. She will be dearly missed by all who knew her.

Deborah is survived by one son, Devin Hacker of Bad Axe, one daughter, Daira Hacker of Marlette, father, Boyde Christiansen of Jackson, numerous nieces and nephews, a loving dog Piper, and a feline friend Prue.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Glenna Christiansen, one brother, Michael Christiansen and one sister, Tina Christiansen.

In keeping with her wishes, cremation has taken place.
