

Debra Lynn Arntz

December 15, 1956 - March 20, 2021

Debra Lynn Arntz, (Debbie Taylor), age 64, of Bad Axe went to join her son Jamie in heaven on Saturday, March 20, 2021 after a long battle with cancer.

Debbie came into this world on December 15, 1956, daughter of Kenneth and Patricia (Gerow) Arntz in Harbor Beach, MI. She graduated from Harbor Beach High School in 1975.

Debbie enjoyed helping in the family business painting ice fishing hooks and making trolling spoons. She took pride in the fact that she designed the bumble bee and they really hit the salmon with it. She also enjoyed drawing, cooking, garage sales and as many can attest to, party planning. From the menu to the decorations, fun was had by all.

Debbie leaves behind her fiancé, best friend and the love of her life for 30 years, Phillip Taylor along with her mother, Patricia Arntz, brothers-Rick (Joan) Arntz, Kim (Dorothy) Arntz, Dennis (Debbie) Arntz and Chris (Laura) Arntz. A sister, Karen White. In-laws-Robert "Bob" and Kathy Taylor, Philip and Diana Weltin, Randy Stomack, Diana Taylor, George and Tammy Taylor, Barbara Taylor, Joyce Mazure, and Jeff Taylor. Her lifelong friend, Nancy Siemen and many nieces, nephews and friends.

Debbie was preceded in death by the joy of her life, son Jamie Arntz, her father, Kenneth Arntz, mother-in-law Theresa Taylor, brothers-in-law Pat White, David Taylor, John Mazure, sister-in-law Kathy Stomack and one nephew, Jason Arntz.

The family would like to thank Rose and the whole staff at Heartland Hospice for their help and support through this difficult time.

A private graveside service will be held at Sacred Heart Cemetery in Bad Axe with Fr. T.J. Fleming officiating.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Kidney Foundation, Thumb Industries or Heartland Hospice.
