“ I will forever remember this wonderful lady for a few things...her love for her grandchildren and great grandchildren and her BEANS. I was lucky to attend a birthday and also met Gramma that's when I had her beans.....well I had to tell her how great they were and she said oh they are nothing kinda of laughing.....They were just soooooo good....I think I told Chenoa numerous times about them.....Wasn't long I got that family secret recipe and I will never tell it NEVER....but I will say my beans never tasted like Grammas beans.....she had that special touch....Grammas do, they are there no matter what, when, or why but they also have the best memories we ever hold.....Sending my condolences to your family.....Dee.
