

Gregg Nieten

October 19, 1959 - November 20, 2023

Gregg Nieten, Sr., age 64, of Bad Axe, passed away on Monday, November 20, 2023.

He was born on October 19, 1959, son of the late Ralph Nieten and Doreen (Stone) Clark.

Gregg was well-known for his sense of humor, authentic smile, and his ability to fix almost anything. He enjoyed spending time with his family and friends, walking his dog Candy, watching racing and the Detroit Lions, fishing, and collecting. He will be remembered as a dedicated father, son, brother, friend, and extremely hard worker.

Gregg is survived by one son, Gregg (Katelyn) Nieten, Jr. of Mt. Pleasant; two daughters, Shannon Nieten of Elkton and Tara (John) Neeb of Bay City; grandchildren Bryce Nieten, Ayden Nieten, Caleb Nieten, Emmalee Nieten-Schember, Haley Neeb, Maddyx Neeb; his sister Dawn Pettie of Battle Creek, and many nieces and nephews.

Gregg was preceded in death by step-father James Clark and sisters Jill Nieten and Sheri Nieten.

In keeping with his wishes, a cremation has taken place.

Tribute Wall

“ We were so sorry to hear about your dad. Our thoughts are with you during this difficult time.

Grandpa Smitty's girls and families

---

Elizabeth Koroleski - December 03, 2023 at 08:12 PM

KB

“ I will always remember the times together back in the day. Rest in Peace my old freind.

---

Keith Bairski - November 26, 2023 at 05:21 PM

DP

What can I say about my brother. He taught so many things about cars that I never do. lol He had the driest sense of humor that most people didn't get but he was funny. He cared about people more than anyone realized. I love you my brother. ❤️❤️❤️

---

Dawn Pettie - November 26, 2023 at 05:28 PM

WC

“ Rest in peace my friend, I'll treasure the memories. I'll miss your phone calls Gregg.

---

Wayne Cove - November 26, 2023 at 05:10 PM