“ Although death occurs in many ways & will inevitably hurt regardless...unexpected death surely knocks the wind out of ones sails. ❤️

“Siewert” has been a member of our family since I was a little girl. He was immediately adopted as one of our own & was with us more often than not. He attended my choir concerts, joined us on trips up north, threw back 21st birthday shots & always had a chair at our table for holiday meals & summer cook-outs.

It breaks my heart to see my parents this way...Jim was truly their very best friend & I know the feeling was mutual. We know all of this sorrow isn't what you would want, but the wound of your passing is just so surreal. We love you, we love you so much it hurts. We miss you & your infectious personality already. 😊

I pray that you are happily walking through heavens gates with a thirty pack, just like you always would through our front door. I pray for much needed strength & healing to each of your loved ones, especially your other half & daughter! I pray that you will always look down upon us as we recollect all of the memories we created with your fun loving self...& I pray that there is a card table in heaven, because you are already missed at ours. 😊

God Bless You “Siewert” there will never be another fella quite like you...
