“ I have just now found out of the passing of my North Huron class mate, Joyce. We laughed and laughed at our last reunion. We had laughed and teased, and gathered so many times through the years. Rest in peace, my friend. I'm so sorry I won't be there to say good-bye in person. You and yours are in my prayers. Patricia Mroczek

“ Joyce and I did so many things together growing up. Doing the chores and baling hay, to hand picking corn so we could get a horse. We both worked at paper roll in P.A. we would get our paychecks, cash them and go have breakfast at Walt's. Later years we would go to craft shows, the best time was when we brought that T-shirt, we could not stop chuckling about it. Miss you and love you
