“ I have known Karen for 25 years, her Daughter and gave her hell as teenagers, oh she would get so mad at us and then we became mothers of teenagers and started asking for advice, she would look at us and smile and laugh have fun.... Karen loved her family and most of all her grandchildren... her 4 Grandchildren were her world and she made sure not one of them kids went without, She always smiled even if she was sad or upset, she always gave to others when she her self may have needed. She will be greatfully missed by alot that love her.

“ I recently worked with Karen. She left me with many memories, life lessons and laughter. She greeted me with a smile every morning as I pulled into work. And if I was running late I never had to worry. Karen had this knack of crashing the time clock. Little did she know, her mistakes saved me from clocking in late. Karen, you are at peace now. Dance with the Angels.
