“ Nancy Klemmer was always so welcoming and loving. She always made me feel at home when I came to her home with Sally during college. She showed me what a loving mother really was. I will never forget her. Never. I especially remember one Christmas when she looked at me after eating a meal and said I was pregnant. She just knew. She knew before I even did. She was the best of moms. I see why Sally is such a beautiful person. She gets it from her mom. Heaven just gained a beautiful angel.

“ I am so grateful for Nancy that I cannot fully explain, she was the best grandmother ever. My grandchildren just lit up every time they knew they were going to visit her. My granddaughter coryne loved going out and doing projects with Nancy and would tell me about what she did with her even if it was something little. They loved going camping every year. I remember one year when Nancy invited my family out for thanksgiving we had the best time she made us feel welcome. She was so proud every time she attended a concert or a basketball game for coryne she was proud of her. So yes Nancy will be truly missed by everyone that she ever came upon. My prayers are with mine and her family having my daughter being married into the family was a true blessing for myself and my family to be related by marriage. My son in law James has become the the best father to my grandchildren and I know that comes from his mothers living nature. So Nancy you will be missed but never forgotten
