Nathan Arnold Kaufman, age 95, of Port Hope, was called home to meet his Savior on Tuesday, September 1, 2020 at Courtney Manor in Bad Axe.

Many family and friends enjoyed the abundance from Nate and Doris’s garden. Nathan was a lifelong member of St. John Lutheran Church where he served in various positions as well as a member of the choir. He enjoyed golfing, bowling, playing cards, dominoes and spending time with family and friends, especially visits from grandchildren and great-grandchildren. In his early years, Nathan piloted a plane he co-owned and he loved to recount his many flying adventures.

Nathan is survived by his three grandchildren, Jennifer (Brian) Iseler, Jodi (Robert) Porzandek, and Casey Eggert; great grandchildren Jady, Tori and Brady Iseler, Dylan and Mason Porzandek; son-in-law Arnie (Mary) Eggert; sister Norma Johnson, in-laws Phyllis (Elwin) Will, Leroy (Alice) Schave, Hugh Harwood, Bernard Cregeur, Deanna Schave and many nieces and nephews. Nathan was preceded in death by his loving wife Doris and daughters, Carol Kaufman and Diane Eggert; siblings and spouses, Eugene (Ethel Mae)

“ Uncle Nate always made trips to Michigan worthwhile. He picked on me often about my Southern accent, my first and only snowmobile experience at his farm and my love of Aunt Doris's cheesecake. Playing cards until late night with the family and Uncle Nate's competitiveness was such fun. His hugs and laughter will be missed.

“I'm thankful to have had Uncle Nate in my life. He's always been a special person to me. Partly, I suppose, because he was my Godfather, but also because he consistently took time to give me a hug, say something funny to make me laugh or share a bit of knowledge or wisdom. I'm remembering a long time ago when we were hauling in hay at our place and he was on top of a wagon load of bales, busily jamming the hay-forks into a bundle of bales while singing silly songs as Carol, Diane and I giggled and laughed and sang along. I'm going to miss him.
