

Nina Jo "Ditto" Apley

October 24, 1930 - November 27, 2015

Nina Jo (Ditto) Apley, "Josie", 85, departed this life into the arms of Jesus on Friday, November 27, 2015 surrounded by her loved ones at home.

Josie was born on October 24, 1930 in Clovis, New Mexico, daughter of Frank and Nina Mae Ditto. She lived most of her life in Clovis where she was a member of the Advent Christian Church. She moved to Farmersville, TX in 2010 where she lived with her stepson Alan Scott Apley and his family. She remained in Texas until September of 2014 when she moved to Knoxville, TN to live with her stepdaughter Anna Marie Sprain and her family.

She was preceded in death by her loving husband of 28 years Stanley Apley, parents Frank and Nina Mae Ditto, brothers' William R. Ditto and Kenneth W. Ditto and stepson Alan Scott Apley. She is survived by sister Frankie Bernice Trelikes of El Cajon, CA; birth son George McCandless of Roswell, NM; stepdaughters and sons-in-law Rebecca and William Kirby of Joshua, TX; Anna and Butch Sprain of Knoxville, TN; stepson and daughter-in-law Joel and Lisa Apley of Knoxville, TN and numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Josie was a strong woman who had battled Rheumatoid Arthritis since the age of 10 and though it crippled her body, she never let it define who she was or what she could do. She had a beautiful smile, joyful and kind spirit and was loved by all who knew her.

Josie has been cremated and interment will be with her husband Stanley Apley. Graveside services will be held at 11:00 am on Saturday, September 3, 2016 in Colfax Cemetery in Bad Axe. Friends may call at the cemetery prior to the 11:00 am service time.

A special note of appreciation goes to the care team of Amedisy's Home Health and Hospice of Knoxville, TN who provided such compassionate care during her 14 weeks of Hospice Care.

Her physical presence will be missed by all, memories of her love and spirit will remain with us always and for those who count Jesus as Lord and Savior, one day we will see her again.
