“ I'm definitely going to miss Aunt Pat. She had so much love for so many people. She was such a huge part of my life. There is a definite void in my heart, but at the same time so thankful that she is now well and with her loved ones that passed before her. 💜

“ I'll miss my stepmom so much. Such a blessing to me when her and her family came into my life as a young child. She was spunky, outspoken, and sassy with a playful loving nature and had fun teasing and joking with her loved ones. That came with an infectious giggle that you couldn't help but laugh along with. She loved to cuddle and always had a baby or a kid attached at the hip. She really went out of her way to make me and all of her family feel special. Many special memories playing cards, board games, playing on hay stacks, canoeing, hunting, fishing, 4 wheeling, swimming, going to garage sales (or junking) as she called it, auctions, flea markets, and visiting with friends. She surprised me with handmade sheets, ruffled pillowcases, and a canopy bed not only for me but for my Barbie dolls as well much to my delight. She went all out on the Holidays for me and my sister and brothers every year. We had so many lovely Christmas and Birthday get togethers. Every year for my Birthday she would make me themed cake and the most beautiful wedding cake ever when I got married. She was so loving to my Dad and called him "My Honey". There were always plenty of "Love Pats" and knuckle sandwiches and Got your nose for the kids too. I cherish those memories and she will be forever loved and missed by many.

“ Never a truer friend has ever existed. My heart aches with the pain of your passing, but at the same time I am filled with joy knowing you are home with Jesus.
