“ Ken, Ron, Diane & More:

Mother Pat was a gracious person, even with all of her sorrows. If she wasn't hospitable, it must have been very well camouflaged. I can vividly remember the two little red feet that she carried for so long until God removed this cross from her. Now this cross is finally finished. She was such a positive trooper and most certainly an inspiration to anyone who would have crossed her path.

Now it is our time to pray for the little lady who showed us how to carry her cross.

Ken, Ron, Diane & More, may the prayers of family and friends help to send this warrior to Heaven like a rocket.
