“ Very fond memories with Paulette and her family growing up as a child. Spent many a summer day playing at there home. I often reflect back on those days and will forever cherish the opportunity to know Paulette. Recently, back in June, we were talking back and forth on FB, she had made a batch of Strawberry Rhubarb jam. I offered her a jar of honey for a jar of jam. Regretfully we did not exchange those trinkets face to face, rather we left the honey on the front porch as Jeff and Paulette were out taking a ride on the Harley. Best darn jam ever!!!! Heaven has a new angel !!!!!

“ Even though I did not know her family, I felt as if I did because she would always talk about her husband, her son and her mother. Her son was her pride and joy. We would always make it a point to look for each other when I traveled to Michigan and was at the corporate offices. And when she was in the payroll department, I would teach her Spanish, and she actually did pretty good. It broke my heart when i heard what Paulette was going through. But it's comforting to know that she is now in a better place. She will be greatly missed !
