

Peter Prill

June 21, 1926 - August 6, 2016

Peter P. Prill Sr. "CITY PETE", age 90, passed away peacefully August 6, 2016 at Courtney Manor Nursing Home of Bad Axe.

"CITY PETE" was born June 21, 1926 at the family farm home in Kinde, the first born of Paul S. and Elizabeth (Andreski) Prill.

"City Pete" enjoyed hunting, fishing and camping. He was raised on a farm where he as a child ran "horse and plow" and milked cows by hand. He and his wife tired of the farm life and moved to the town of Bad Axe where Pete began a job with the City digging trenches with a pick and a shovel. He devoted hard work to the City and was awarded the Superintendent of the Water Works in Bad Axe. Retirement came 42 years later. During that time he devoted himself to the Northern Atmosphere of Michigan where he built a cabin on land on Mack Lake, Mio. There he worked with wood, selling to home owners of the Northern Region and surrounding counties there. He loved racing cars at the Owendale Speedway and was a wonderful story teller who made friends everywhere he went. He spent much time helping Amish friends with their lives too. Pete enjoyed his Catholic Devotional Prayers and recited them in Polish to keep up with the language he grew up with. "City Pete" devoted his life to God and helping others the best way he knew how. Everyone that knew him enjoyed their visits with him.

Pete is survived by his wife of 68 years Marie H. (Voelker) Prill. They were married on Nov. 15th 1947. They had 7 children together.
