“ Dear Family of Rose,
I have some very nice everyday kind of memories of a sweet new friend I met when I moved in here. The frosting on the cake was, Rose was Hungarian, as I am, and we shared many recipes and samples from her. A dear sweet lady I was fortunate to meet and have as a friend. You have a wonderful family Rose, we will keep you and all of them in my prayers.

So glad we got to know Rose. By marriage she was our aunt! We loved listening to her stories and her cooking was the best! She was a beautiful lady in every respect! We were very fortunate to be part of her lay. For her Son and daughters, we are sorry for your loss. I just lost Mom , I miss her deeply . But Rose and my Mom are in my heart to stay. God Bless
