“ I am so very sorry for your loss. The Bible makes this comforting promise: "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted, he saves those who are crushed in spirit." (Psalm 34:18) It also assures us: "Throw your burden on Jehovah, and he will sustain you." (Psalm 55:22) May these thoughts bring you a measure of comfort at this difficult time.

“ Bob, Kenny, Gary, Kathy, Janet and Randy. I am sending my condolences to you and your families. We have many memories growing up together since we all were young children. All the Christmases and other Holiday's spent together years ago when we all lived closer and were not so busy. I did find time to visit Howard and Shirley while Pheasant Hunting in Verona a few years back and will miss both of them. Jimmy will be there today with Mom and Nancy, sorry I couldn't make it...Sincerely, John Taylor

“ I lived next door to Howard and Shirley during the late 90's and early 2000's. They were great neighbors. I would run into Shirley now and then since I moved. I last saw here at the Bad Axe library a few weeks ago. I'm glad I ran into her there. We had a good visit. Shirley was a wonderful lady. My condolences to her family.

“ Grandma, I grew up so far away from you and didn't see you as often as I would have hoped. However, this made for our visits to feel that much more special. You were so kind to us kids and did all sorts of things special just for us. I will always remember that you always made a Cherry pie just for me. Still to this day, nobody has ever made one as good as yours. You are missed and loved.
