“ Condolences to you all. Stanley was a good friend to my dad, Henry Sofka, when I was growing up and I have happy memories. Agnes was a cousin to my dad also and her brother Cass who was Brother to Agnes and uncle to Stanley worked for my dad. I remember card games and Sebewing beer in their get togethers. I just found out he had passed from my sister and it saddened me. Prayers are sent your way.

“ In this season of HOPE, Dorothy, Don, Carolyn, Nick, please know that I was saddened to hear of Clarence's death. As I read the obituary, I realized how many of Clarence's family I knew and remember and so send my sympathies to you all. In this dark time of year, we look forward to the GIFT of that wondrous LIGHT that leads us through death to the fulfillment God has planned. May the warmth, love, and promise of LIGHT be of some comfort to you in the days of tears, remembering and healing ahead. Again, peace to you all, Fr. Joe Griffin
