

Virginia Olsowy

June 17, 1943 - November 28, 2020

Virginia Lee Olsowy (Kato) passed away peacefully at her home in Bad Axe, Michigan, on November 28, 2020, at the age of 77.

Virginia was born at Delray General Hospital in Detroit, Michigan, on June 17, 1943, to the late Joseph Kato and Amelia Kato (Pellegrinon).

She attended Redford High School in Detroit, Michigan, and graduated in 1960.

She met her husband Frank when she was working as a telephone switchboard operator for a Detroit company. Frank struck up a conversation with her while making a call and the rest was history. Frank and Virginia were married in Warren, Michigan, on January 14, 1967.

Virginia was a stay at home wife and mom while her children were growing, but later worked for the Bad Axe Wal-Mart, in various functions, for 10 years before she decided to retire. During retirement, Virginia and Frank enjoyed being snowbirds and going to Florida every winter.

In her early years, Virginia enjoyed playing on a bowling league and frequently attended Bingo. Virginia was also a licensed Amateur Radio operator. Virginia was an avid reader and could always be found with a book in her hand, or nearby, and she loved to perform word search puzzles. She loved to engage people in conversation.

Virginia is predeceased by her husband, Francis Grant Olsowy, of 53 years who recently passed on November 18, 2020. She is also predeceased by both her parents and her brother Joseph Kato, Jr.

Virginia is survived by her sons Timothy (Jill) Olsowy, and Christopher Olsowy.

“ *Tim and Chris,
Tom-KC8AE and i, Diane-N8LFQ are sad to hear of the loss of your mother now so soon after your father. We sure enjoyed both your parents company at ham radio functions. Your mom was always a great visitor and had a wonderful laugh. Of course your mom and Tom would tease each other. We are so sorry for your loss, but hope you can find comfort that they are together so soon. You have our sympathy.
