Warren and Grace had a passion for horses. Many of their dates were spent horseback riding with friends and after they married there were always horses on the farm. Brace Beemer's (The Lone Ranger of WXYZ radio in Detroit) horse Silver was a longtime resident as was Babe, an adopted wild mustang. Warren loved to ride. “ As I remember it, Mom very much enjoyed working with “Warren J.” when he was on the Board of Commissioners. And he was always kind and encouraging when our paths crossed. So sorry for your family’s loss.

“ What a privilege it has been to know Warren and Grace through the years! I always felt at home and loved whenever I was able to visit. I look forward to the day when we will all meet again as that is the hope we share. This isn't goodbye, but see you later! In a place with no more sorrow and no more tears! What could be better than that?
